All the books in this catalogue are new books due for release in May 2014.

Because they are new books, we are at the whim of the publishers and to some extent the shipping companies - books can sometimes arrive later (or earlier) than anticipated, or occasionally be a different retail price than originally quoted. Because space is a luxury, we bring in limited quantities of books, and prices are subject to change without notice.

Please reserve copies of anything you want so you don't miss out - ASAP!

If a book has sold-out by the time we receive your order, we will back-order and supply when available.

Pulp Fiction has access to thousands of books not shown in our monthly catalogues. We are only too happy to order anything if we don't have it on the shelves.

If you can't make it into the shop, you can post, phone, fax or e-mail your order. We accept Bankcard, Mastercard, Visa, AMEX, cheques and Australia Post Money Orders.

Approximate current postage within Australia is: 1 -2 paperbacks (up to 500 grams), $7.95.

2-10 paperbacks or any trade paperbacks or hardcovers within Brisbane is $9.85.

Outside Brisbane metro area (over 500 grams up to 3 kilos), $11.40. Anything above 3 kilos charged at Australia Post rates.

Until next time, good reading!

NIGHT HERON

BROOKES, Adam
"A lone man, Peanut, escapes a labour camp in the dead of night, fleeing across the winter desert of north-west China. Two decades earlier, he was a spy for the British; now Peanut must disappear on Beijing's surveillance-blanketed streets. Desperate and ruthless, he reaches out to his one-time MI6 paymasters via crusading journalist Philip Mangan, offering military secrets in return for extraction. But the secrets prove more valuable than Peanut or Mangan could ever have known...and not only to the British. Uncover a world of international secrets in the utterly authentic, unbearably tense opening novel in a landmark thriller trilogy by BBC Foreign Correspondent Adam Brookes." - publisher's blurb. This is not hyperbole: Night Heron is wonderful. Highly recommended.

Thriller TP $29.99

THROUGH THE CRACKS

BROWN, Honey
Four-year-old Nathan Fisher disappears from the bank of a rocky creek. Did he drown or was he taken? The search for the missing boy grips the nation. A decade later, young teen Adam Vander has grown tall enough, strong enough, to escape his abusive father. Emerging from behind the locked door of their rambling suburban home, Adam steps into a world he knows little of. In the days that follow, with the charismatic and streetwise Billy as his guide, Adam begins to experience all that he's missed out on. And he begins to understand that he has survived something extraordinary. As the bond between the boys grows, questions begin to surface. Who is Adam really?

A COOKBOOK CONSPIRACY

CARLISLE, Kate
Bookbinder Brooklyn Wainwright's sister, Savannah, and her former culinary school classmates all became successful chefs, especially Savannah's ex-boyfriend Baxter Cromwell, who went on to culinary superstardom. When he invites the old gang to the gala opening of his new restaurant in San Francisco, Savannah asks Brooklyn to restore a rare antique cookbook as a present for him. The night they all gather, Baxter is found dead, the cookbook has disappeared, and Savannah becomes the suspect du jour. But Brooklyn knows her sister is innocent, and there are plenty of old grudges simmering among this backstabbing bunch. This a fabulous cosy series - recommended.

ENEMIES AT HOME

DAVIS, Lindsey
We first met Flavia Albia, Falco's feisty adopted daughter, in The Ides of April ($19.99). Albia is a remarkable woman in what is very much a man's world: young, widowed and fiercely independent, she lives alone on the Aventine Hill in Rome and makes a good living as a hired investigator. An outsider in more ways than one, Albia has unique insight into life in ancient Rome, and she puts it to good use going places no man could go, and asking questions no man could ask. Even as the dust settles from her last case, Albia finds herself once again drawn into a web of lies and intrigue. A mysterious death at a local villa may be murder and, as the household slaves are implicated, Albia is once again forced to involve herself. Her fight is not just for truth and justice, however; this time, she's also battling for the very lives of people who can't fight for themselves.

THE RISING TIDE

EASTER, Patrick
September 1799. William Pitt is attempting to force through anti-slavery legislation, but many have a vested interest in preventing this change and would go to dangerous lengths to stop it. Meanwhile, Tom Pascoe of the river police is grieving for the woman he loved and looking for solace at the bottom of a bottle. Tom's drinking has made him belligerent and unpredictable, so when he is called to investigate a body found in the Thames - that of an MP and a close associate of William Pitt - there's doubt whether he's up to the task. Tom Pascoe previously appears in Watermen and The River of Fire ($18.99 each).

A CRY IN THE NIGHT

GRIEVES, Tom
Detectives Zoe Barnes and Sam Taylor are called to investigate the disappearance of two children in the Lake District. But they quickly realise they have been drawn into a complex and unnerving case that hides a much darker intent: as they dig deeper, whispers grow of a community hiding a deadly secret - and talk of witches, the like of which hasn't been heard since the seventeenth century, is spreading.
Mystery PBK $19.99

DEAD, WHITE, AND BLUE

HART, Carolyn
Bookstore owner Annie Darling's life is all about murder mysteries: reading them, selling them - and solving them. Summer is a hectic time for Annie and her husband, Max. Sun and scorching temperatures never fail to bring swarms of tourists to their mystery bookstore, Death on Demand, for the latest beach reads. Shell Hurst is the kind of woman wives hate - for good reason - and most of them wish she would just disappear. But when she does, last seen walking into the pine trees during the Fourth of July fireworks display, Annie can't help but feel like someone should be looking for her. Recommended.
