All the books in this catalogue are new books due for release in July 2016.

Because they are new books, we are at the whim of the publishers and, to some extent, the shipping companies – books can sometimes arrive later (or earlier) than, or occasionally be a different retail price than originally quoted. Because space is a luxury, we bring in limited quantities of books. Prices are subject to change without notice.

Please reserve copies of anything you want so you don't miss out – ASAP!

If a book has sold out by the time we receive your order, we will back-order and supply, when available.

Pulp Fiction has access to thousands of books not shown in our monthly catalogues. We are only too happy to order anything if we don't have it on the shelves.

If you can't make it into the shop, you can post, phone, or e-mail your order. We accept Mastercard, Visa, AMEX, cheques and Australia Post Money Orders.

Approximate current postage, within Australia, is:

1–2 paperbacks
(up to 500 grams), $7.95.

2–10 paperbacks or any trade paperbacks or hardcovers, within Brisbane, is $10.05.

Outside Brisbane metro area (over 500 grams up to 3 kilos), $13.40.

Anything above 3 kilos charged at Australia Post rates.

Until next time, good reading!

THE KILLING KIND
HOLM, Chris
Michael Hendricks is not a good man. He doesn't deserve a good life. But he is very good at his job. He's the killing kind. He doesn't accept contract kills. He doesn't work for any criminal organisation. And he never kills civilians. He only hits hitters. He's not the kind of guy you call, if you want to pop somebody who's pissed you off, or done you wrong. He's not a guy you call, at all – he calls you. And when he does, you'd be advised to take his call. Because it means that someone wants you dead, and time is running out to save your life. It's not a bad way to make a living, but it's a great way to make enemies. And, now, both the FBI and the mafia have Hendricks in their sights, he's about to learn just how good he really is. This is superb – highly recommended for fans of Charlie Huston, Warren Ellis, et al.

THE GIRL IN GREEN
MILLER, Derek
1991. Near Checkpoint Zulu, one hundred miles from the Kuwaiti border, Thomas Benton meets Arwood Hobbes. Benton is a British journalist who reports from war zones, in part to avoid his lacklustre marriage and a daughter he loves but cannot connect with; Hobbes is a Midwestern American private who might be an insufferable ignoramus, or might be a brilliant lunatic with a death wish – it's hard to tell. Operation Desert Storm is over, peace has been declared, but as they argue about whether it makes sense to cross the nearest border in search of an ice cream, they become embroiled in a horrific attack in which a young local girl in a green dress is shot in the back and dies in Hobbes's arms. The two men walk away into their respective lives. But something has cracked for them both. Twenty-two years later, in another place, in another war, the two men meet again...

DINNER CLUB MYSTERIES 01: TOASTING UP TROUBLE
WIKEN, Linda
Event planner Jennifer JJ Tanner has a full plate, but that's the way she likes it. First, it's her turn to choose the recipe for the next meeting of the Culinary Capers Dinner Club, a gathering of foodie friends who experiment with entrees for their creative and gastronomic pleasure. Second, she's organising an Italian princess party for the twenty-one-year-old daughter of a high-tech millionaire. But one thing, JJ didn't plan on, is that the caterer for the event – hotshot chef, Antonio Marcotti – would end up murdered, the night of the party.
