All the books in this catalogue are new books due for release in March 2018.

Because they are new books, we are at the whim of the publishers and, to some extent, the shipping companies – books can sometimes arrive later (or earlier) than, or occasionally be a different retail price than originally quoted. Because space is a luxury, we bring in limited quantities of books. Prices are subject to change without notice.

Please reserve copies of anything you want so you don't miss out – ASAP!

If a book has sold out by the time we receive your order, we will back-order and supply, when available.

Pulp Fiction has access to thousands of books not shown in our monthly catalogues. We are only too happy to order anything if we don't have it on the shelves.

If you can't make it into the shop, you can post, phone, or e-mail your order. We accept Mastercard, Visa, AMEX, cheques and Australia Post Money Orders.

Approximate current postage, within Australia, is:

1–2 paperbacks
(up to 500 grams), $7.95.

2–10 paperbacks or any trade paperbacks or hardcovers, within Brisbane, is $10.70.

Outside Brisbane metro area (over 500 grams up to 3 kilos), $13.40.

Anything above 3 kilos charged at Australia Post rates.

Until next time, good reading!

HOLMES ENTANGLED
MCALPINE, Gordon
Sherlock Holmes, now in his seventies, retired from investigations and peaceably disguised as a professor at Cambridge, is shaken – when a modestly successful author in his late-sixties named Arthur Conan Doyle calls upon him at the university. This Conan Doyle, notable for historical adventure stories, science fiction, and a three-volume history of the Boer War (but no detective tales), somehow knows of the false professor's true identity and pleads for investigative assistance. Someone is trying to kill Conan Doyle...
Sherlockiana TP $28.95

DR HARRY KENT: A HANDFUL OF ASHES
MCCARTHY, Rob
Susan Bayliss became notorious when she blew the whistle on her boss, a heart surgeon at a renowned children's hospital. She accused him of negligence, but in the end, she was the one suspended as a troublemaker. Now, Dr Harry Kent, a medical examiner with the Met Police, has been called out to certify her suicide. But something about the scene is wrong. Someone held Susan down... Follows Dr Harry Kent's debut appearance: The Hollow Men (PBK, $19.99).

CORMAC REILLY: THE RÚIN
MCTIERNAN, Dervla
Galway 1993: Young Garda Cormac Reilly is called to a scene he will never forget. Two silent, neglected children – fifteen-year-old Maude and five-year-old Jack – are waiting for him at a crumbling country house. Upstairs, their mother lies dead. Twenty years later, a body surfaces in the icy black waters of the River Corrib. At first, it looks like an open-and-shut case, but then doubt is cast on the investigation's findings – and the integrity of the police. Cormac is thrown back into the cold case that has haunted him, his entire career – what links the two deaths, two decades apart? The first novel of an Irish-Australian author, now living in Perth. Recommended.
Mystery/suspense TP $32.99

CHICAGO: A NOVEL OF PROHIBITION
MAMET, David
Mike Hodge – veteran of the Great War, big shot of the Chicago Tribune, medium fry – probably shouldn't have fallen in love with Annie Walsh. Then, again, maybe the man who killed Annie Walsh should have known better than to trifle with Mike Hodge. Set in mobbed-up 1920s' Chicago – a city where some people knew too much, and where everyone should have known better – by the Oscar-nominated screenwriter of The Untouchables.

THE MORIARTY PAPERS: THE ADVENTURES OF SHERLOCK HOLMES'S GREAT NEMESIS
MORAN, Sebastian
The infamous Professor James Moriarty is a brooding presence in all of the adventures of celebrated British detective Sherlock Holmes. Yet, his actions are described only once – in The Final Problem – when he and Holmes wrestle on the brink of the Reichenbach Falls. So, who exactly was Moriarty? A power-crazed mathematician, as described by Arthur Conan Doyle? The public face of an underground brotherhood? Or the cocaine-induced Hyde to Holmes' Jekyll? These papers hold the key...
Sherlockiana HC $22.95

DOWN THE RIVER UNTO THE SEA
MOSLEY, Walter
Joe King Oliver was one of the NYPD's finest investigators until, dispatched to arrest a well-heeled car thief, he is framed for assault, a charge that lands him in the notorious Riker's Island prison. A decade later, King is a private detective, running his agency with the help of his teenage daughter, Aja-Denise. When he receives a card in the mail from the woman, who admits she was paid by someone in the NYPD to frame him all those years ago, King realises that he has no choice but to take his own case.

WREXFORD & SLOANE: MURDER ON BLACK SWAN LANE
PENROSE, Andrea
The Earl of Wrexford possesses a brilliant scientific mind, but boredom and pride lead him to reckless behaviour. So, when pompous, pious Reverend Josiah Holworthy publicly condemns him for debauchery, Wrexford unsheathes his rapier-sharp wit and strikes back. As their war of words escalates, London's most popular satirical cartoonist, A J Quill, skewers them both. But then the clergyman is found slain in a church – his face burned by chemicals, his throat slashed ear to ear – and Wrexford finds himself the chief suspect. An artist in her own right, Charlotte Sloane has secretly slipped into the persona of her late husband, using his nom de plume: A J Quill... The first in a new series.
