Includes new books by:

Robert Buettner
Gael Carriger
Stephen Hunt
Caitlin Kiernan
Ken MacLeod
Tim Powers
David Weber
Chris Wooding
...and many others

All the books in this catalogue are new books due for release in March 2012.

Because they are new books, we are at the whim of the publishers and to some extent the shipping companies - books can sometimes arrive later (or earlier) than anticipated, or occasionally be a different retail price than originally quoted. Because space is a luxury, we bring in limited quantities of books. Prices are subject to change without notice.

Please reserve copies of anything you want so you don't miss out - ASAP!

If a book has sold-out by the time we receive your order, we will back-order and supply when available.

Pulp Fiction has access to thousands of books not shown in our monthly catalogues. We are only too happy to order anything if we don't have it on the shelves.

If you can't make it into the shop, you can post, phone, fax or e-mail your order. We accept Bankcard, Mastercard, Visa, AMEX, cheques and Australia Post Money Orders.

Approximate current postage within Australia is: 1-2 paperbacks (up to 500 grams), $6.35.

2-10 paperbacks or any trade paperbacks or hardcovers within Brisbane is $8.35.

Outside Brisbane metro area (over 500 grams up to 3 kilos), $11.20. Anything above 3 kilos charged at Australia Post rates.

Until next time, good reading!

THE STEEL SERAGLIO

CAREY, Mike, Louise & Linda
"The family Carey (spouses Mike and Linda, daughter Louise) team up to explore the ancient city of Bessa and the horrors that befall it. When the sultan of the city is killed in a religious uprising, his concubines barely escape. Trapped in the desert, they are saved only because one of their number, Zuleika, is actually a trained assassin. Led by Zuleika, strong-willed Gursoon, and Rem, a cursed librarian who was cast out for the crime of preserving knowledge, they wander in search of hope. The Careys nest smaller tales within the larger story and often jump around in time; it's a good approach, backed by fast pacing and great characters..." - Publisher's Weekly

TIMELESS

CARRIGER, Gail
Alexia Tarabotti, Lady Maccon, has settled into domestic bliss. Of course, being Alexia, such bliss involves integrating werewolves into London High society, living in a vampire's second best closet, and coping with a precocious toddler who is prone to turning supernatural willy-nilly. Even Ivy Tunstell's acting troupe's latest play, disastrous to say the least, cannot put a dampener on Alexia's enjoyment of her new London lifestyle. Until, that is, she receives a summons from Alexandria that cannot be ignored. Recommended.

DEATH SENTENCES

CHIAKI, Kawamata
Japan, 1980s: A special police squad is tracking down one of the "afflicted" to recover the "stuff." Although the operation seems like a drug bust, the "stuff" is actually a surrealist poem, penned in the 1940s which, through low-tech circulation across time, kills its readers, including Arshile Gorky and Antonin Artaud, before sparking a wave of suicides after its publication in 1980s Japan. Mixing elements of Japanese hard-boiled detective story, horror, and science fiction, the novel ranges across time and space, from the Left Bank of Paris to Mars. "A hard-boiled, sharply surreal fable about the power of the written word." - William Gibson

THE LAST WEREWOLF

DUNCAN, Glen
Meet Jake. A bit on the elderly side (he turns 201 in March), but you'd never suspect it. Nonstop sex and exercise will do that for you - and a diet with lots of animal protein. Jake is a werewolf, and after the unfortunate and violent death of his one contemporary, he is now the last of his species. Although he is physically healthy, Jake is deeply distraught and lonely. Jake's depression has carried him to the point where he is actually contemplating suicide, even if it means terminating a legend thousands of years old. But for very different reasons there are two dangerous groups pursuing him who will stop at nothing to keep him alive. This is exhilarating, horrifying and splendidly written - we loved it.

REDWOOD AND WILDFIRE

HAIRSTON, Andrea
Redwood and Wildfire is a novel of what might have been. At the turn of the 20th century, minstrel shows transform into vaudeville, which slides into moving pictures. Hunkering together in dark theatres, diverse audiences marvel at flickering images. This dreaming in public becomes common culture and part of what transforms immigrants and native born into Americans. Redwood, an African American woman, and Aidan, a Seminole Irish man, journey from Georgia to Chicago, from haunted swampland to a city of the future. The winner of this year's Tiptree Award for Best Novel.

A MAN OF PARTS

LODGE, David
“A moving, funny and masterful novel about the life of H.G. Wells... Unfolding this astonishing story, David Lodge depicts a man as contradictory as he was talented: a socialist who enjoyed his affluence, an acclaimed novelist who turned against the literary novel; a feminist womaniser, sensual yet incurably romantic, irresistible and exasperating by turns, but always vitally human.” – publisher’s blurb

THE ALCHEMIST OF SOULS

LYLE, Anne
When Tudor explorers returned from the New World, they brought back a name out of half-forgotten Viking legend: skraylings. Red-sailed ships followed in the explorers’ wake, bringing Native American goods, and a skrayling ambassador, to London. But what do these seemingly magical beings really want in Elizabeth I’s capital? Mal Catlyn, a down-at-heel swordsman, is seconded to the ambassador’s bodyguard, but assassination attempts are the least of his problems.
Fantasy/alternate history PBK $17.95

IN THE MOUTH OF THE WHALE

MCAULEY, Paul
Now the Ghosts have returned to Fomalhaut, to begin their end game: the conquest of its single gas giant planet - a captured interstellar wanderer far older than the rest of Fomalhaut’s system. Set in the same universe as the wonderful Quiet War and Gardens of the Sun ($22.99 each). Epic sf in the vein of Alastair Reynolds and Iain M. Banks.
Science fiction TP $32.99

EXOGENE

MCCARTHY, T.C.
“Former CIA analyst McCarthy delivers a stark and wrenching sequel to Germline [$19.99]. Against the backdrop of a continent-spanning, barely described war in Asia, Catherine, a genetically engineered American super-soldier turned loose on the battlefield at 15, breaks free of her religious conditioning and makes a run for freedom... The conclusion is simultaneously heartbreaking and triumphant, and utterly appropriate for the brutal, bloody, and magnificent story.” - Publishers Weekly
Science fiction PBK $19.99

DISCOUNT ARMAGEDDON

MCGUIRE, Seanan
The Price family has spent generations studying the monsters of the world, working to protect them from humanity - and humanity from them. Enter Verity Price. Despite being trained from birth as a cryptozoologist, she’d rather dance a tango than tangle with a demon, and is spending a year in Manhattan while she pursues her career in professional ballroom dance. The first in a new series, the Incryptid, this is getting great reviews.

RETRIBUTION FALLS

WOODING, Chris
Frey is the captain of the Ketty Jay. He and his gang make a living on the wrong side of the law, avoiding the heavily armed flying frigates of the Coalition Navy. With their trio of ragged fighter craft, they run contraband, rob airships and generally make a nuisance of themselves. So a hot tip on a cargo freighter loaded with valuables seems like a great prospect for an easy heist and a fast buck. Until the heist goes wrong and the freighter explodes. Suddenly Frey isn’t just a nuisance anymore - he’s public enemy number one, with the Coalition Navy on his tail and contractors hired to take him down. The first in a top-notch pulpy sf series, this has been reissued at a very nice price. Recommended.
