October 2015

Includes new books by:

Stephen Baxter
Greg Bear
Marianne de Pierres
Tanya Huff
Mercedes Lackey
Ann Leckie
Ian McDonald
... and many others.

All the books in this catalogue are new books due for release in October 2015.

Because they are new books, we are at the whim of the publishers and, to some extent, the shipping companies – books can sometimes arrive later (or earlier) than, or occasionally be a different retail price than originally quoted. Because space is a luxury, we bring in limited quantities of books. Prices are subject to change without notice.

Please reserve copies of anything you want so you don't miss out – ASAP!

If a book has sold out by the time we receive your order, we will back-order and supply, when available.

Pulp Fiction has access to thousands of books not shown in our monthly catalogues. We are only too happy to order anything if we don't have it on the shelves.

If you can't make it into the shop, you can post, phone, fax or e-mail your order. We accept Mastercard, Visa, AMEX, cheques and Australia Post Money Orders.

Approximate current postage, within Australia, is: 1–2 paperbacks (up to 500 grams), $7.95.

2–10 paperbacks or any trade paperbacks or hardcovers, within Brisbane, is $10.05.

Outside Brisbane metro area (over 500 grams up to 3 kilos), $13.40. Anything above 3 kilos charged at Australia Post rates.

Until next time, good reading!

DREAMLAND

ANDERSON, Robert L.
Dea Donahue has been able to travel through people's dreams since she was six years old. Her mother taught her the three rules of walking: Never interfere. Never be seen. Never walk the same person's dream more than once. Dea has never questioned her mother, not about the rules, not about the clocks or the mirrors, not about moving from place to place to be one step ahead of the unseen monsters that Dea's mother is certain are right behind them. But when Dea breaks the rules, the boundary between worlds begins to deteriorate. How can she know what's real and what's not?

THE HEART GOES LAST

ATWOOD, Margaret
A sinister, wickedly funny and deeply disturbing novel about a near future in which the lawful are locked up and the lawless roam free. Charmaine and Stan are young and in love. Victims of a growing divide between the haves and the have nots, they struggle to keep their relationship alive in the face of increasing poverty. Now living in their car, they survive on tips from Charmaine's job at filthy dive bar, until the day they see an advertisement for a social experiment offering security, community, and a break from the daily grind of their current existence. But what seems at first to be a balancing act worth investing in for the safety of a permanent roof over their heads, soon turns into a nightmare of conformity, mistrust, guilt and sexual desire.

SORCERER ROYAL 01: SORCERER TO THE CROWN

CHO, Zen
The Royal Society of Unnatural Philosophers, one of the most respected organisations throughout all of England, has long been tasked with maintaining magic within His Majesty's lands. But lately, the once proper institute has fallen into disgrace, naming an altogether unsuitable gentleman – a freed slave who doesn't even have a familiar – as their Sorcerer Royal, and allowing England's once profuse stores of magic to slowly bleed dry. At least, they haven't stooped so low as to allow women to practice what is obviously a man's profession... At his wit's end, Zacharias Wythe, Sorcerer Royal of the Unnatural Philosophers and eminently proficient magician, ventures to the border of Fairyland to discover why England's magical stocks are drying up. But when his adventure brings him in contact with a most unusual comrade, a woman with immense power and an unfathomable gift, he sets on a path which will alter the nature of sorcery in all of Britain – and the world at large.
Fantasy TPB $29.99

SON OF THE BLACK SWORD

CORREIA, Larry
Ashok Vadal has been chosen by a powerful ancient weapon to be its bearer. He is a Protector, the elite militant order of roving law enforcers. No one is more merciless in rooting out those who secretly practice the old ways. Everything is black or white, good or evil, until he discovers his entire life is a fraud. Ashok isn't who he thinks he is, and when he finds himself on the wrong side of the law, the consequences lead to rebellion, war – and destruction. A signed, limited, hardcover edition is also available to order ($52.95).

INK MAGE

GISCHLER, Victor
In the first instalment of the A Fire Beneath the Skin trilogy, the city of Klaar has never fallen. No enemy has ever made it across the Long Bridge or penetrated the city's mighty walls. Even when a powerful invading army shows up at the gates, the duke and his daughter, Rina Veraiin, are certain that it poses little threat. But they are cruelly betrayed from within and, in a horrific spasm of violence, the city is brought to its knees. With the help of her bodyguard, Kork, the battle-trained young Rina narrowly escapes the slaughter and makes her way to the lair of an ancient sorcerer – the Ink Mage – who gifts her with a strange, beautiful set of magical tattoos. Now a duchess in exile, Rina sets out on a quest to reclaim what is rightfully hers, aided by a motley assortment of followers who will help her in her cause – some for noble reasons and others for their own dark purposes. The second in the series is The Tattooed Duchess (TPB, $29.95).

CARTER & LOVECRAFT

HOWARD, Jonathan L
Daniel Carter was a homicide detective until a serial-killer case ended spectacularly badly. Now he's running a bookstore in Providence, Rhode Island, which he inherited under rather confusing circumstances, and locking horns with his new employee, Emily Lovecraft, who's descended from the great horror and fantasy writer H P Lovecraft. Soon, Carter begins to suspect something odd is going on in Providence – a series of strange deaths is a pretty big clue – and then, more ominously, he begins to wonder if Lovecraft's tales might not have been simply made-up stories. This has been getting excellent reviews.

Dllenahkh, leader of the small group of Sadiri settlers on Cygnus Beta, remembers the cool strong blues and gentle sunlight of his home world. He also remembers the moment he was told his planet was destroyed. Now, they must work together to rebuild his decimated population by searching for the last surviving members of his race.

Science fiction PBK $19.99

LUNA

MCDONALD, Ian
'Ian McDonald's never written a bad novel, but this is a great Ian McDonald novel. When you read classic sf novels, like Heinlein's The Moon is a Harsh Mistress, you can get the feeling that the author has imagined the whole world, from psychosexual relations to geopolitics, and has plucked out the telling details that let you know that this is more than a mere backdrop – it's a kind of sociological macrocosm for the lives of the characters. But McDonald has ten details for every detail proffered by other sf writers... The fashion sense of William Gibson, the design sense of Bruce Sterling, the eye for family drama of Connie Willis, the poeise of Bradbury, and the dirty sex of Kathe Koja and Samuel Delany. McDonald's moon is omniseual, kinky, violent, passionate, beautiful, awful, vibrant and crushing. As the family saga of the Cortas unravels, we meet a self-sexual ninja lawyer, a werewolf who loses his mind in the Full Earth, a family tyrant whose ruthlessness is matched only by his crapulence, and a panoply of great passions and low desires. Luna: New Moon is the first book of a two-book cycle. Now I'm all a-quiver for the next one.' – Cory Doctorow. We agree – this a stupendous return to adult SF for McDonald. Don't miss.

Science fiction TPB $29.99

SATURN RUN: A NOVEL OF 2066

SANDFORD, John & CTEIN
The year is 2066. A Caltech intern inadvertently notices an anomaly from a space telescope – something is approaching Saturn, and decelerating. Space objects don't decelerate. Spaceships do. A flurry of top-level government meetings produces the inescapable conclusion: Whatever built that ship is at least one hundred years ahead in hard and soft technology, and whoever can get their hands on it exclusively and bring it back will have an advantage so large, no other nation can compete. A conclusion the Chinese definitely agree with, when they find out.

RADIANCE

VALENTE, Catherynne M.
Severin Unck's father is a famous director of Gothic romances in an alternate 1986, in which talking movies are still a daring innovation due to the patent-hoarding Edison family. Rebellious against her father's films of passion, intrigue, and spirits from beyond, Severin starts making documentaries, traveling through space and investigating the levitator cults of Neptune and the lawless saloons of Mars. Told using techniques from reality TV, classic film, gossip magazines, and meta-fictional narrative, Radiance is a solar system-spanning story of love, exploration, family, loss, quantum physics, and silent film.

RAWBLOOD

WARD, Catriona
In 1910, eleven-year-old Iris Villarca lives with her father at Rawblood, a lonely house on Dartmoor. Iris and her father are the last of their name. The Villarcas always die young, bloodily. Iris believes it's because of a congenital disease which means she must isolate herself from the world. But one sunlit autumn day, beside her mother's grave, she forces the truth from her father: the disease is biologically impossible. A lie, to cover a darker secret. The Villarcas are haunted, through the generations. When Iris is fifteen, she breaks her promise to remain alone all her life, and the consequences are immediate...

ZEROES 01: ZEROES

WESTERFELD, Scott, LANAGAN, Margo & BIANCOTTI, Deborah
Six Californian teens have powers that set them apart. Ethan aka Scam has a voice inside him that'll say whatever people want to hear, whether it's true or not. Which is handy, except when it isn't – like when the voice starts gabbing in the middle of a bank robbery. The only people who can help are the other Zeroes, who aren't exactly best friends, these days. Enter Nate, aka Bellwether, the group's 'glorious leader'. After Scam's SOS, he pulls the scattered Zeroes back together. But when the rescue blows up in their faces, the Zeroes find themselves propelled into whirlwind encounters with ever more dangerous criminals. At the heart of the chaos, they find Kelsie, who can take a crowd in the palm of her hand and tame it or let it loose as she pleases.

FUTURISTIC VIOLENCE AND FANCY SUITS

WONG, David
Nightmarish villains with superhuman enhancements. An all-seeing social network that tracks your every move. Mysterious, smooth-talking power players who lurk behind the scenes. A young woman from the trailer park. And her very smelly cat. Together, they will decide the future of mankind. This is the world in which Zoey Ashe finds herself, navigating a futuristic city in which one can find elements of the fantastic, nightmarish and ridiculous on any street corner. Her only trusted advisor is the aforementioned cat, but even in the future, cats cannot give advice. At least, not any that you'd want to follow.
