...and many others

All the books in this catalogue are new books due for release in September 2012.

Because they are new books, we are at the whim of the publishers and to some extent the shipping companies - books can sometimes arrive later (or earlier) than anticipated, or occasionally be a different retail price than originally quoted. Because space is a luxury, we bring in limited quantities of books. Prices are subject to change without notice.

Please reserve copies of anything you want so you don't miss out - ASAP!

If a book has sold-out by the time we receive your order, we will back-order and supply when available.

Pulp Fiction has access to thousands of books not shown in our monthly catalogues. We are only too happy to order anything if we don't have it on the shelves.

If you can't make it into the shop, you can post, phone, fax or e-mail your order. We accept Bankcard, Mastercard, Visa, AMEX, cheques and Australia Post Money Orders.

Approximate current postage within Australia is: 1 -2 paperbacks (up to 500 grams), $6.60.

2-10 paperbacks or any trade paperbacks or hardcovers within Brisbane is $8.65.

Outside Brisbane metro area (over 500 grams up to 3 kilos), $11.40.

Anything above 3 kilos charged at Australia Post rates.

Until next time, good reading!

IRON WINTER

BAXTER, Stephen

It is 1315. And darkness is falling . . . Many generations ago the Wall was first built to hold back the sea. Northland, a country of fertile plains and ancient forests rescued from the ocean, has become a thriving civilisation based on trade, technology and tradition, centred on the ancient home of the first builders, Etxelur (see Stone Spring and Bronze Summer, $19.99 each). The whole of Europe, spanned by the Northlanders' steam caravan lines, has been changed in ways that could never have been predicted. But nothing can last forever, not even the Wall. The weather is changing, growing colder, and in the wake of the long winters come famine, destruction and terror. But there is one man, an elderly scholar, who believes he can calculate why the world is cooling, and perhaps even salvage some scraps of the great civilisation of Etxelur.

Alternate history TP $29.99

EXIT

BELL, Alden

In a world where the undead outnumber the living, Moses Todd returns to the post-apocalyptic plains of America with his reprobate brother, Abraham. A chance encounter presents him with the Vestal Amata, a beguiling and mysterious woman who may hold the key to salvation. But he is not the only one seeking the Vestal. For the Vestal has a gift that might help save what is left of humanity.

Post-apocalyptic PBK $24.99

STRANDED

BISHOP, Anne et al

Three novellas: A Strand in the Web by Anne Bishop: The Restorers travel the universe fulfilling a purpose handed down through the generations. They live and die aboard city-ships, never knowing the worlds they create and save. What begins as a disastrous training exercise in creating and balancing ecosystems becomes an unexpected fight for survival. A Host Of Leeches by James Alan Gardner: A young woman wakes to find herself the sole human on an orbiting, mechanical space station. Stranded by Anthony Francis: Explores a clash of ethics and survival when a young, genetically engineered centauress from the ultra-advanced Alliance lays claim to a rare, strategic garden planet, only to find herself captured by a band of rag-tag Frontier refugees.

"The near-future USA of Ziegler's impressive debut is dominated by Satori, a megacorporation only nominally answerable to the weak government that distributes Satori's genetically modified seed stock to migrants in a land ravaged by climate change. When Satori engineer Pihadassa, goes rogue, agent Sienna Doss heads out to capture her and persuade her to work for the government... Fans weary of common postapocalyptic tropes will greatly appreciate Ziegler's imaginative world-building, vivid writing, and compelling and racially diverse cast full of unique voices." - Publisher's Weekly
